CHS students attend MTA event

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Mississippi Theatre Association (MTA) held its 2019 Theatre Festival in Meridian early this year. The mission of MTA is to foster appreciation and participation in theatre throughout Mississippi. Clinton High School's Arrow Players participated in the annual festival by auditioning for colleges, competing in Individual Events and attending workshops. At the event, Kylie Dowd placed second overall in scenic design, while Zeke Griffin and Baxter Evans were finalists in duet acting. Baileigh Hughes received several callbacks from various colleges throughout Mississippi. Pictured (l to r) are, front row: Alba Hernandez, Ashia Crump and Cyan Brandon; second row: Lexi Mahaffey, Arnese Tyler and Lauren Smith; third row: Kylie Dowd, Isaac Martinolich, Zeke Griffin and Kayden Chistov; fourth row: Baxter Evans, Baileigh Hughes and Hwin Moller; and back row: Ryan Lacy, William Campbell and Aaron Graves.
