

Lady Choctaws victorious on Senior Night

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Mississippi College women's basketball team ended the 2018-19 campaign with an 88-75 Senior Night win over the University of West Alabama on Thursday, February 28 inside A.E. Wood Coliseum. The win snapped a two-game slide to the Tigers and knotted the series at 13-all.

The Lady Choctaws picked up career-high scoring performances from senior Zan Ratcliffe and junior Coco Hobson in the contest. Ratcliffe led the team with 24 points while Hobson added 23 points. Zariah Matthews supplied 13 points. Hobson also led the team with eight rebounds.

Mississippi College shot 51.0 percent from the floor, including a clip of 61.1 from behind the arc. The Lady Choctaws drained a season-high 11 3-pointers in the decision. The Navy and Gold shot 92.6 percent from the free throw line.

Tazsa Garrett-Hammett led the Tigers with 19 points. The effort led a quartet of UWA double figure scorers. J'Nyiah Daniels led the Red and White on the glass with seven rebounds. West Alabama shot 41.9 percent from the field and connected on 80.8 percent from the free throw line.

The game's turning point occurred when Shanell Kitchen knocked down a 3-pointer with 8:45 left to play to place MC up 58-48 in the game. The trey marked the first double-digit lead of the game for the Lady Choctaws en route to the 13-point win.
