unbelievable journey.”

This winter, the Saints lost their bid to return to the Super Bowl, suffering a painful overtime defeat to the Los Angeles Rams. Saints fans continue to express disappointment. An infamous “no-call” by an NFL referee in the NFC championship crushed their Super Bowl dreams, critics say. Instant replays fire up complaints that pass interference should have been called late in the game.

An Austin, Texas native and former Purdue University football star, Drew Brees is devoted to serving people worldwide. Founded in 2003, the Brees Dream Foundation provides charitable funding to improve the quality of life for cancer patients. It offers care, education and opportunities for children as well as needy families. The foundation contributed in excess of $25 million to charitable causes globally. Support comes from individuals and corporations around the world.

After playing a few seasons for San Diego, Brees signed with the New Orleans Saints in 2006. Drew and his teammates delivered a Super Bowl victory to lift the spirits of New Orleans that was devastated by Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

MC Choctaws head football coach John Bland is eager to welcome Drew Brees to the 2019 scholarship dinner. “This will be a great night for MC!”

Tickets cost $300 per person. Tables seating eight people will range from $2,000 to $5,000. For more information, visit mc.edu/banquet or contact Amy Rowan at 601-925-3257 or Rowan@mc.edu

Delta Sigma Theta celebrates fifteen year anniversary

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Clinton (MS) Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. recently celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of its chartering with a Community Impact Day and Ecumenical Service.

The Clinton (MS) Alumnae Chapter was chartered on March 29, 2004, with thirty-one members. A weekend celebration commemorating the chapter's fifteen years of service to the communities of Clinton, Bolton, Byram, Edwards, Raymond, Terry and Utica began with simultaneous community service activities in each of the service areas on Saturday, March 30, from 9 a.m. until noon.

On Sunday, March 31, at 2 p.m. at Holy Ghost Baptist Church in Clinton, the chapter held an ecumenical service that was open to the public. The theme, “Called to Serve,” appropriately described the occasion, and Mrs. Keba Laird, the chapter chaplain, delivered the theme address.
