

Clintons Fourth of July Extravaganza parking and traffic plans announced

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton Police have announced instructions for arriving, parking and departing Traceway Park for the 30th Annual Family Fireworks Extravaganza presented by Continental. Parking will open at 4 p.m. in parking lots accessible by Soccer Row and Baseball Alley.

Residents will want to make plans to arrive early and grab a spot for headline performer Bishop Gunn of Natchez and opening act Hannah Belle. Bishop Gunn has been featured in Rolling Stone Magazine as the next great Southern rock band. Event organizers anticipate a larger than normal crowd, due to Bishop Gunn's following.

Traceway's Baseball Alley will be open at 4 p.m. for those desiring to tailgate before the event in that section of the park.

Once the Soccer Row intersection with Cynthia Road has been closed, those arriving from Arrow Drive will be asked to make a left turn on Cynthia Road to turn around and proceed back down Arrow Drive to park at one of the schools along Arrow Drive. Additional overflow parking will be available at the softball/baseball fields of Traceway Park for those arriving from Northside Drive.

No parking will be allowed on the shoulders of Northside Drive, Cynthia Road or Arrow Drive. Violations could result in ticketing or towing. Turner the Train will be on site moving guests from parking lots to the main event areas.

Parking in the Cascades subdivision will be restricted to residents and their guests. Parking on right of ways and common areas of Cascades is not permitted and could result in ticketing. Cascades, Brookside Gardens and Twin Lakes homeowners will be provided parking passes that will be good only on the Fourth of July. The entrance to Cascades at Cascades Circle West will have an officer stationed there to direct traffic. Barricades will be placed at Waterfall Way, Twin Lakes and Cascades Circle East.

Following the event, those exiting overflow parking on Cynthia Road and Baseball Alley will be directed toward Northside Drive. Those exiting Soccer Row will have the option of heading west on Arrow Drive or turning east (right) on Cynthia Road. No left turns onto Cynthia Road will be allowed from Soccer Row.

While entrance to the event is free, parking for the event at all locations is $10 per vehicle.
