

JA of Clinton welcomes new members

Special to The Clinton Courier

Junior Auxiliary of Clinton recently welcomed its new active members that have graduated from the Fall 2018 Provisional class. This group of ladies previously showed interest in the Junior Auxiliary of Clinton. They were then trained for six months, as well as attended Chapter meetings and projects to complete their training. Now, they are ready to volunteer their time to their community through the organization for the next five years.

Junior Auxiliary is a national non-profit organization that encourages members to render charitable services, which are beneficial to the general public, with particular emphasis on children.

Junior Auxiliary of Clinton was chartered by a group of caring, enthusiastic women in 1986 and continues to grow and thrive throughout the community. Volunteers work tirelessly throughout the year on a variety of projects that focus on local children and families in need of assistance.

Junior Auxiliary of Clinton is a part of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries (NAJA), a non-profit organization founded in 1941 with headquarters in Greenville. NAJA has more than 13,500 active, associate,
