Holiday market to kick off holiday season Nov. 9

Patrons should plan to stop by the Main Street Clinton booth, where the organization will be selling their tee shirts. They will also be promoting Small Business Saturday with the Clinton Chamber of Commerce, scheduled nationally for Saturday, November 30.

"The event has grown so much over the years," Lytal said. "It is so important to our local economy that our community supports our locally owned businesses."

Marketgoers can pick up a free Shop Small tote from the Main Street Clinton and Chamber booth; and, while they're there, grab a ticket for the upcoming Santa Claus Crawl, an adult event best described as a scavenger hunt-style tour from business to business in Olde Towne, with cider, hors d'oeuvres, music and door prizes.

It has become a Holiday Market tradition for Kids for Christ Performing Arts to perform on the brick streets. Market visitors can once again come and enjoy their performance, scheduled for 11 a.m.

Local musicians interested in performing at the market can contact Main Street Clinton.

For more information, contact the Main Street Clinton office at 601-924-5472.
