The Clinton Courier

November 5, 2019

CCA CELEBRATES 2019 HONECOMING

6

Clinton Christian Academy celebrated their homecoming on Thursday, October 24. The festivities started with a pep rally for the whole school that morning, an alumni pre-game reception, and the Homecoming Court was presented at half-time of the football game. Anna Catherine Markham was named 2019 Homecoming Queen. Both the middle school and the upper school had dances the following Saturday.

Special to The Clinton Courier

Pictured (L to r) are freshman maids Eliza Naquin and Haley Cannada: junior maids Asjia Gooden and Iris Farve: senior maids Taylor Jones, Anna Cat Markham and Brigitte Carter: sophomore maids Audrey Bryson and Alyssa Cornelius: eighth grade maid Selena White: and seventh grade maid Ella Craft.

Assisting in the ceremonies was Mrs. Love's kindergarten class, who served as prince and princesses and presented the maids with roses. Pictured (L to r) are, front row: Elliott Eninobor, Luke Gray, Slade Vargas, Eli Lane, Bernice Rop, Hallie Huerta and Wilson King: and back row: Kamryn Manuel, Millie Moulder, James Salone and Jared Sanders.

Special to The Clinton Courier

CCA Headmaster Dr. Phillip Broome, Prince-Wilson King, Queen Anna Cat Markham and her father Keith Markham.

SAME OWNERS, SAME LOCATION 40 YEARS! At Wilson, we believe in old school customer service where you are greeted by the owner and treated like family.

WILSON THRE

8 AUTO CA

