

Wabeno Area Players present 'Farce of Habit'

Join the Wabeno Area Players on November 21-23 at 7 p.m. or November 23 and 24 at 1 p.m. for "Farce of Habit," a play by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Wooten, in the Madonna Hall, 1793 Elm Ave., Wabeno.

Comic fireworks explode in "Farce of Habit," a southern-fried romp that takes us back to a fishing lodge in the Ozarks. Proprietor D. Gene Wilburn is looking forward to a peaceful weekend, but there are only two chances of that happening: slim and none.

Why has his wife picked these three days to begin caffeine withdrawal? Why is his son's marriage falling apart so fast? How on earth would D. Gene's sister get caught up in such a bizarre undercover police assignment?

If this isn't enough to thwart D. Gene's weekend plans, he's got a gaggle of nuns who've converged on the Inn for a nature retreat. Add to this a nationally known relationship guru whose colossal ego threatens everyone's sanity; a shy retiree anxious to cut lose and embrace his "inner caveman" and a couple of wild women who may or may not be who they claim to be. Throw in a storm of the century, and D. Gene has no prayer of baiting a hook any time soon. Oh, and did we mention there's an axe murderer on the loose?

If you love hilarity, then laughing your way through a Jones-Hope-Wooten comedy is one habit you'll never want to break.
