Bump. Set. Spike Rebels! Here you go for the 2019 season. Head Coach Tessa Tysver is back for her 12th year leading the Rebels volleyball program. Assisting her this season are Amy Schuldt, Jessica Winter and Steph Hanson.

The Rebels lost four players to graduation from last year's team. Fortunately, they return nine players who played last season. They were 13-17 last year. The team is looking to build off of how they ended last season.

Returning for the Rebels are Peyton Wilson, 5'10" M; Maria Watt, 5'10" M; Mariah Iwen, 5'7" Setter; Hailey Wagner 5'3" Libero; Kelsey Rheault, 5'7" O; Kaylee Thune, 5'9"; Gracie Giesinger 5'2" DS; Maddy Berggren 5'2" S; Kayla Molstre, 5'6" R; Ellie Seidler, 5'9" S; Olivia Feigum 5'10"; Mallory Leitner 6'0" O; Olivia Holm 5'6" DS and Briana Gustafson, 5'4" DS.

"We have a lot of experience in the middle hitter position with Peyton Wilson and Maria Watt. Both are in their third year of varsity," says Tysver. "Mariah Iwen returns at the setting position and will bring experience and leadership running our offense."

The Rebels have set high goals for themselves. They want to be competing for the conference and section titles. In order to do this, they set practice goals that will help them to become more competitive and focused. A couple of the team's biggest strengths are hitting and blocking.

As far as the HOL Conference, Tysver sees it as a competitive conference this year for sure. She does see Hawley and Barnesville being two of the top teams in the HOL.

"My favorite thing about volleyball season is seeing the girls improve from the beginning of the year to the end and watching them grow," concludes Tysver. "I love the competitiveness and power of the game."
