Dustin Flaten is back as head coach for the Ulen-Hitterdal and Norman County East Titans. This is his 11th year coaching the Titans and 18th year coaching overall.

The Titans are in the District 9 West (North) Conference and Section 6, which is nine-man football. Last year's record was a great one as the Titans went 10-1 for the season.

Returning defensive starters are Treyton Klemetson, Kasy Lisburg, Chase Green, Riley Resnick and Gavin Jacobson. Returning offensive starters are Kasy Lisburg, Riley Resnick, Kennedy Ramstorf and Parker Lien.

Some notable stats for the returners include Treyton Klemetson, 41 tackles and two pass deflections; Kasy Lisburg, 98 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one fumble caused; Chase Green, 52 tackles, 1.5 sacks, one pass deflection, two fumble recoveries; Riley Resnick, 78 tackles, four sacks, two pass deflections, one fumble caused, one fumble recovered; and Gavin Jacobson, 89 tackles, two pass deflections, two fumble caused and one fumble recovered.

Flaten notes these players on his "players to watch" list this season: Morgan Stueness, Chase Green, Treyton Klemetson, Riley Resnick, Parker Lien, Kasy Lisburg and Gavin Jacobson.

"We have the majority of our offensive line back, so we will have a little adjustment with our skilled players until they get the speed of the game down," noted Flaten.

He also notes that defensively they have a lot of leaders back on the field who like to move around and make plays. They are hoping to be playing their best ball by the end of the year, which could give the team another shot at playing in the section championship.

Flaten picks for his section are Win-E-Mac, NCE-UH and Fertile-Beltrami as contenders. For the conference his notes SAC, Win-E-Mac and NCE-UH.

"As of right now, for the projected starting lineup, we have some returning starters who are probably up on the depth chart along with Morgan Stueness and a few other juniors ready to make plays," concludes Flaten.
