

Best Bank: First Citizens National Bank

First Citizens National Bank has been chosen by readers as Best Full Service Bank in Weakley County. FCNB has served customers for more than 130 years and has been a part of Weakley County since 2001. A full-service financial center is located in Martin at 200 University St, and an ATM is located at 116 Lovelace Ave.

First Citizens National Bank offers a complete line of financial products and services, including personal checking, savings, and loans. The bank caters to business needs with checking, savings, loans and Treasury services.

Mortgage lending, ag lending, and retirement accounts are just a few of the bank's specialties.

FirstCNB's brand story provides the best description of the company.

Pam Wade, Justine Webb, Kathy Ezell, Tom Serratt, Anna Davis and Char Darling

“What we’ve got here is just unbelievably good. We love our team, our community and our customers — and it’s easy to see why. It goes further than who we work with or live near — we are a big family, and it’s at the core of who we are. We’re a fired-up, top-performing leader, truly caring for the community since 1889, and we put actions behind our words by giving back and doing good. We’re passionate and positive, and believe we can do just about anything to make a difference. Our core values are rock solid. Our attitude is driven. Our promise is to serve you with everything we have.”

Aside from celebrating the bank’s 130th anniversary in 2019, FirstCNB was also recognized as Top 5 percent 5-Star Superior rating (Bauer Financial), #96 in Top 200 community banks in the US (American Banker Magazine), and

#9 in Best Banks to Work For in the US (American Banker and Best Companies Group) and was awarded the BAnky Award for Extraordinary Banking by the Institute of Extraordinary Banking.

For more information, visit FirstCNB online at www.FirstCNB.com.

Best Bank Teller: Kathy Ezell

Kathy Ezell, a Customer Service Associate for six years at First Citizens National Bank in Martin, is being honored as the Best Bank Teller in Weakley County. Tom Seratt, FCNB community bank president said, “Today’s successful community bank is no longer just a bank. We must position ourselves to offer a wide array of high quality financial products and services in a professional manner. Without a quality staff of committed teammates, this would not be possible. We are proud to recognize Kathy for her outstanding performance and dedication to the success of First Citizens.”

Happy Anniversary

130

PEOPLE CENTERED and UNBELIEVABLY GOOD

FIRST CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

www.FirstCNB.com

Member
FDIC