

Magical Martin - Monday, September 2

Martin will once again turn into a magical wonderland this Labor Day (Monday, Sept. 2) as it celebrates the Soybean and community with its youngest and most spirited citizens.

This marks the sixth year for Magical Martin Day and it promises to be packed with fun and activities for all. The day begins at 3:00 p.m. in Weldon Park with rides and free activities for everyone.

There will be free carnival rides, inflatables, a rock-climbing wall, train rides, water games and so many activities that it is impossible to list them all. Of course, community favorites will be back again this year, like the Styles on Broadway Bippity Boppity Hair Booth, the Project 731 Tangled Tie Dye booth, the Higher Ground

Aristocats Café, Fast Pace Doc McStuffins cotton candy, and much more. You will also find some free tasty treats from local vendors like Little Caesars Pizza, Life is What Is What You Bake

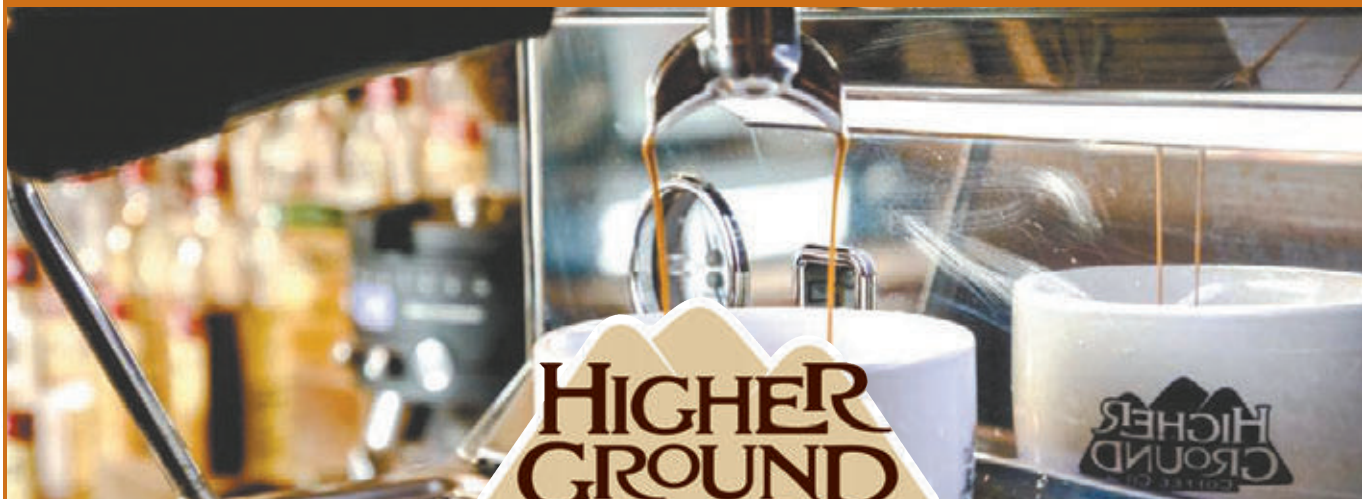

It, Walmart and Sammies. A selection of food trucks will be on site with food and snacks for purchase as well. And don't forget all of the photo and meet and greet opportunities with your favorite characters!

Kids and kids at heart are encouraged to dress as their favorite superhero or princess and join the fun.

"We are so excited to bring the Magic to Martin once again this year," event organizer Suzanne Harper said. "This is an award-winning event and truly a one of a kind experience, and we have it right here in Martin, TN. None of this would be possible without the generous donations of time and resources from our local businesses and festival volunteers. We are so thankful to be able to share such an amazing day with families in our area. We'll see you on Labor Day as we celebrate the magic of Martin, community, and of course, the Soybean Festival!"
