

Petite Miss Soybean 2018

Tiny Miss Soybean 2018

Scarlett Hopper, (third from left), daughter of Marcus and Stephanie Hopper of Gleason, was chosen as queen, Best Personality and Best Model in the Petite Miss division of the Tennessee Soybean Festival pageant, held during Soybean Week in Martin. Her court included (from left) third alternate, Carlisle Peery, daughter of Charles and Kylie Peery of Union City; first alternate, Charlie Phillips, daughter of Kyle and Ashley Phillips of Union City; second alternate and Best Dress, Blakely Snider, daughter of Chad and Kara Snider of Martin; and fourth alternate, Bethany Bennett, daughter of Ryan and Alissa Bennett of Martin.

Winners in the Tiny Miss division of the Tennessee Soybean Festival Pageant, held during Soybean Week, were (from left) third alternate and Best Model, Berkleigh Chism, daughter of Brandon and Laura Ashley Chism of Hornbeak; first alternate and Best Personality, Teagan Ann Morris, daughter of Clayton and Emily Morris of South Fulton; queen and Best Dress, Remi-Kate Slone, daughter of Travis and Paige Davis of Dresden; second alternate, Leah Claire Bentley, daughter of Jennifer and Clayton Bentley of Tiptonville; and fourth alternate, Hannah Tippet, daughter of Angela and Ryan Tippet of Huntingdon.

SISTER'S BEAUTY SHOP

622 ELM ST., MARTIN • MON-SAT 10AM-6PM*

CLOSED SUNDAY • WALK-INS WELCOME

731-281-7171 • 731-223-9172

* Although we post business hours we are proud to offer appointments around YOUR schedule.

"We stay late to make you look great!"

Join Sister's
For Dinner
At The
Chicken Crazy,
Hog Wild
BBQ Cook-off
Friday, Sept. 6th.
Come Early,
Eat Great!

B.C.