Joseph Wilton Bandy

EASLEY - Joseph Wilton Bandy, beloved husband and father, passed away Sunday, January 20, 2019.

He was born in Woodbine, Ga. on Nov. 9, 1942 to the late Mr. and Mrs. (Irene McCall) Wilton Claude Bandy. He was a graduate of McCormick High School and Clemson University.

Joe had retired from Albany International, where he had been a sales engineer, and even though his work took him away from home, he would always make the effort to be at home for any event that involved his children.

He was a true Clemson fan and had received a football scholarship to play for the Tigers upon high school graduation. Although he was plagued with kidney disease and unable to play the game, his heart was forever for the Clemson Tigers. He thoroughly enjoyed golfing and fishing with dear friends and held fond memories of golfing trips along South Carolina's coast and trips out west where he trout fished. He treasured hiking to the bottom of the Grand Canyon and riding the rapids of the Colorado River. One of his favorite spots was N. Litchfield Beach, where he enjoyed being with his family. His Heavenly father blessed him with a loving brother who unselfishly donated one of his kidneys so that Joe could experience all these good times, and he was so grateful.

Joe was an active member of Easley First United Methodist Church and cherished the fellowship of the pastors (present and past) and all church members of the Path Finders Sunday School Class for members 25 to 35 years of age.

After a long and hard fight, he graciously passed away and will rejoice in heaven with our Heavenly Father and loved ones who preceded him.

He was predeceased by his brother, John Harvey Bandy; his sister, Harriett Elizabeth Bandy; and his twin sons, Timothy Scott and Christopher Michael Bandy.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Sandra Corley Bandy; his sons, Joseph Christian Bandy (Maggie) and Michael Brandon Bandy (Carin); and his daughter, Angela-Leigh Elizabeth Bandy (David). He is also survived by his six grandchildren, whom he dearly loved: Corley and Arielle Marlow, JT and Carter Bandy, Bryce Laboon and Braxton Bandy. Joe is also survived by a sister-in-law, Dorothy Bandy Baggett (Jay); brothers-in-law, Dr. David Corley (Fran) and Edwin Corley (Annie Laura); and nieces and nephews.

Memorial services were held at 3 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 23, 2019 at Easley First United Methodist Church.

Friends were received in the church activity center immediately after the memorial service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Easley First United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 589, Easley, SC 29641; or to the charity of one's choice.

Condolences may be expressed online at www.robinsfuneralhomes.com or in person at Robinson Funeral Home-Downtown, Easley, which is assisting the family.

Classic Feng Shui Workshop

Presenter: Niiti Gannon
Monday, Feb. 4, 6 - 7:30 p.m., $15

You have heard and read about Feng Shui, now why not give it a try. Feng Shui is the ancient art and science of living in harmony with your living space. It aims to harness nature's positive forces and correct its negative ones to promote prosperity, health and wellbeing. In this workshop, you will discover your most auspicious position for sitting and sleeping. You will gain insight into how to balance decor and colors to enhance good energy.

Information on the presenter: Niiti Gannon, before retiring to McCormick, had a consultation business called Wind Water Feng Shui in Wisconsin. Niiti has an advanced certificate of Chinese Classic Feng Shui from American Feng Shui Institute, which is based in California and founded by Master Sang, an internationally renowned Feng Shui Master.
