LIFE & HOPE A Weekly Devotional

Are You Satisfied?

Satisfaction is sometimes hard to find. Perhaps a certain rock song from the 1960's comes to mind? "I Can't Get No Satisfaction," sang the Rolling Stones

Often times the problem is that people look in the wrong places for satisfaction. People spend a lot of time and money trying to find things and buy things that will bring satisfaction and happiness. It may do the trick for a moment, but those feelings of being satisfied are often fleeting.

In his classic book, Mere Christianity, C.S. Lewis wrote, "If I find myself a desire which no experience in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that I was made for another world."

The suggestion that Lewis is making is that finding satisfaction in this life goes beyond pleasing ourselves. It is found in God and in being part of something bigger than just us.

The prophet Isaiah is addressing this in the Bible when he says, "The Lord will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sunscorched land and will strengthen you." (Isaiah 58:11)

King David said, "For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things." (Psalm 107:9)

Jesus himself said, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst."

The answer to finding satisfaction in life hinges on where we look for it. Lasting joy and satisfaction can be found in the eternal things of God, not the temporal things of this world. Yes, life will still have storms that come along, but focusing on our eternal hope and joy in Jesus can see us through those circumstances.

As Isaiah said, the Lord will satisfy your needs in that sunscorched land, and God will strengthen you.

Make it Personal: Read Isaiah 58:11-14.

I recently heard someone say, "As you do whatever you'll do today, make sure to invest in your connection with your Creator, with an eye toward that other, eternal world for which you have been made. That's how you'll find real satisfaction, no matter the circumstances.

Have a blessed week Everyone.

ORGIVENESS We have all heard the saying, "to err is human, to forgive is divine." The Lord's prayer depicts this by us asking the Lord to forgive our wrongdoings as we forgive those who do us wrong. Forgiveness doesn't necessarily mean that we forget; however, forgetting would sometimes be a good thing. It should reflect no resentment towards the individual who harmed us. A divorced friend of ours told us about going tot he store and recognizing the sales clerk as her ex-husband's old girlfriend whom he was seeing while they were still married. After the wife left the store, she realized that the clerk had not recognized her, however she felt compelled to go back to introduce herself, and to let her know that she held no resentment towards her. After the woman talked for awhile, they embraced, forgave each other and with tears in their eyes, they departed, both feeling much better. Forgiving someone in our hearts or in person is not always easy, but it is important for our mental well-being, and especially for our souls. When Jesus was unjustly crucified, He asked his heavenly Father to forgive them for they know not what they do.

Get rid of all bitterness, passion, and anger...instead be kind and tender-hearted to one another, and forgive one another as God has forgiven you through Christ.: Good News Bible Ephesians 4:31,32
