Mt. Zion District School Board January Meeting

Pledge Leaders. (Not in order) Quincy Petersen, Lucy Koehn, Macie Veale, Owen Sy, Ellie Jenkins, and Jaxen Taylor.

On Tuesday, January 15 the members of the Mt. Zion School Board gathered for the regular monthly meeting at the District Office. Before the meeting began, 3rd graders Quincy Petersen, Lucy Koehn, Macie Veale, Owen Sy, Ellie Jenkins, and Jaxen Taylor led the room in the Pledge of Allegiance.

After the students left the room, the board continued with the meeting. The solar panel project was brought up once again, but this time with the agreement from the board that the issue would be tabled until further notice. None of the members felt comfortable with the financial uncertainty of the project and what it would mean for the district in the future. Pivot Energy was also unable to provide the district with a similar project done for a school district within the past 5 years. The Board felt it important to have a older project they could look at and have an example at what the possible project would look at down the road, physically and financially. With no visitor or staff communications, the board proceeded with the executive session.

When they returned to the board room, they discussed fund warrants, treasurer's report, and the FY 2020 Budget Calendar. All items were approved with a 7-0 vote. No issues, questions or concerns were discussed.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, February 19 at 7:00pm.
