Applicants Sought for Douglas County Ag Center Scholarships

The Douglas County Ag Center Committee is accepting scholarship applicants for students with an interest in agriculture to apply for the Douglas County Ag Center Scholarship.

related field of study.

- Completed one semester of college course work.
- Submit a copy of college transcript.
- Submit a letter of application telling about yourself (500 word maximum)

Scholarship winners have something in common: they have a love for agriculture and want to pursue that passion as a career. For nearly twenty years, the Douglas County Ag Center Scholarships have helped defray the cost of attending college. Coming from a variety of backgrounds-- on the farm or off the farm--Douglas County college students have benefitted from the scholarships in the field of agriculture. Several have come back to farm in Douglas County and many currently work for agribusinesses. Several have continued their studies and received Master's degrees.

Scholarship winners have something in common: they have a love for agriculture and want to pursue that passion as a career.

To be considered for the 2019 Douglas County Ag Center Scholarship, successful applicants must meet the following requirements:

- From Douglas County and enrolled in an Agriculture
