Motorcycle Madness returns to the museum

After a long hiatus, the motorcycle exhibit is returning to the Douglas County Museum with the help of the Embarras Valley Chapter of A.B.A.T.E. of ILLINOIS. The museum is looking for motorcycles & other historical motorcycle memorabilia to put on loan for this exhibit.

The museum has a security system, is temperature and humidity controlled, and we are insured. We complete loan paperwork for everything placed on loan as well. Items will remain on display through February and may go into March depending on what those loaning items would like to do. We will have a soft opening late December and a larger event opening in January.

Bikes & memorabilia may be dropped off by appointment the week of December 9th.

To schedule an appointment or for more information, contact:

Museum Director Anna Miller at 217-253-2535 or email douglascountymuseum@hotmail.com or contact Embarras Valley Chapter President Sharilyn Kibler-Russell at (217) 480-5212.
