- THE CARNIVAL -

A weekend of carnival fun

TERESA VILLARREAL

Centuries past, the main objective of festivals was trade and commerce, but it was also necessary to contain elements of merriment and cheer.

In order to attract customers to their stalls, singers, musicians, acrobats, and fools were called upon to delight the crowds. Soon the "carnival" atmosphere was created.

This carnival tradition is still alive and well and is awaiting visitors to the La Salle County Fair and Wild Hog Cook-Off.

Once again, this year's carnival offers fun for all ages. With a wide variety of rides and games to indulge in, the fairground will be filled with boundless surprises around every corner. Traditional rides and slides, contests of skill for prizes, and a huge assortment of scrumptious food are the main objective, but one key element is missing.

A carnival could never be special or memorable without the people, so come on out and enjoy the festivities! Family, friends, neighbors, and visitors can unite for a weekend of fun, food, games, and laughs.
