The Goldthwaite Eagle

Dennis 'Buddy' Gustafson downed this big, wide thirteen point buck near his house about five miles northwest of Goldthwaite last season. His wife told The Eagle that Buddy shot the deer in their back yard from their kitchen window. One man's home is another man's deer blind.

Kinnley Shillings shot this nice ten-point buck last season on her Pops and Mimi's ranch just southwest of Goldthwaite in Mills County.

Charles Cody Bags Big Doe

Charles Cody, 86-years young, of Baytown bagged this nice doe with his .30-06 rifle on the XTC Graves Family Ranch in northeast Mills County over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend last year.

Charles was guided by his nephew Dr. Tom Cody Graves. Other members of the family also hunted that afternoon, but Charles was the only hunter to bag a deer.
