

Suspect jailed in 7-Eleven robbery, slaying

STAFF REPORTS

A 21-year-old Oklahoma City man has been arrested in connection with a robbery that led to the death of a 7-Eleven clerk on Sept. 3. Oklahoma City police said they arrested George Way at an apartment in the 11500 block of SW 15 Street Thursday evening after receiving a tip. Way was arrested on complaints of first-degree murder and robbery with a firearm. Maj. Gary Knight, a spokesman for the Oklahoma City Police Department, says Way did not resist when arrested. The apartment complex is located near the 7-Eleven at 1601 S. Mustang Road. According to authorities, Way robbed the store at about 2:27 a.m. Sept. 3. The clerk, Laura Taylor, followed the robber outside and was shot by Way, who fled on foot. Taylor, 30, died at the scene. Knight said an investigation into the robbery-homicide is still ongoing. Way remained in custody but had not been charged as of press time Thursday. Anyone with information is asked to call police at 297-1200. Officials with 7-Eleven released the following statement Thursday:

3-month-old’s death is ruled a homicide

STAFF REPORTS

Authorities have ruled the death of a 3-month-old Yukon-area girl a homicide.

Oklahoma City Police said Amora Azmat died March 21 at OU Medical Center. The state medical examiner’s office ruled her death a homicide on Aug.

31. The police announced the findings late last week. According to information provided in a news release, Oklahoma City police were called to a residence at 204 Stebbin Drive after receiving a call about an infant that was not breathing. The girl was taken to OU Medical Center, where she died. Officials said no one has been arrested in connection with the case as of Tuesday. Anyone with information about the case is asked to contact the Oklahoma City Homicide Tip Line at 297-1200.
