

Coming around to score ...

Four years in the making ...

It's not easy building a successful athletics program. It takes vision, talent, a ton of hard work and the help of players, fellow coaches, administrators and boosters and sponsors. Greene County High School coaches Nick Chatham and Tyler Barham took over their programs at the same time in 2017 and are each starting their fourth seasons in charge of the baseball and softball programs at the school. Both have experienced some success. Barham's program had its best year in 2019, but still fell just short of the postseason. Chatham's 2019 team was his most successful as well, making it deep into the playoffs. Both coaches believe the 2020 season could be the one to push their programs back into the discussions when people talk about the top programs in Class 4A. Time will tell if that is the case, but it is clear both coaches have their programs headed in the right direction. Barham is shown (Above, left) sending signs to a baserunner at first base during the Lady Cats' home opener. Chatham is shown (Above, right) talking through a situation with longtime GCHS pitching coach and trusted advisor Dale Kimble during the Wildcats' opening day scrimmages.
