I want to have ice powers for a day so I can be like Elsa from Frozen and freeze pop-sicles super fast.

MIA STEVENSON

I would be able to turn things into ice for my superpower because I like it. I want to be a vet when I grow up because I want to help animals. My favorite part of kindergarten was Mrs. Melissa. I am excited about going to first grade because that means I am growing up.

Good Luck

from you Grandparents,
Aunts, Uncles & Cousins

It has been a privilege to watch you grow into the young woman you are today. Wishing you the best for the future and its challenges and the many opportunities that's out there for you (Future Veterinarian). We know you can do it. We have faith in you. Keep trusting and believing in the Lord like you do and all things will work out for you,

Baby Girl.

If I could have a super-power for a day, it would be to be Batman and fight crime! When I grow up I want to be a chef because I want to learn to cook. My favorite part about kindergarten was when we painted out Yertle turtles and made stuff! I am excited about first grade but also scared because I want to stay in kindergarten.

JAXON TAPPER

If I could have a super-power for a day, it would be to fly so I can fly around and save the whole town! When I grow up, I want to be a veterinarian so I can make all of the animals better if they are sick or hurt. I love dogs a lot! My favorite part of kindergarten was my teacher Mrs. Bush and all of my friends. I love my whole school very much! I am excited about first grade because Mrs. Irwin will be there and she's a really great teacher.

BROOKLYN DUKES

If I could have a superpower for a day, it would be to be invisible so that I can spy on people. When I grow up, I want to be a veterinarian because I love to take care of animals. My favorite part about kindergarten was getting to play with my friends. I am excited about first grade because I get to read bigger books!
