Independence Day in Choctaw 2020

By Ryan Horton
Managing Editor

The Choctaw Independence Day celebration will return to Choctaw Creek Park this summer.

As the city adjusts for a possible reduced budget, due to a loss in sales tax following the COVID-19 pandemic, the event will look a little different this year.

A carnival will be hosted July 1-4. Admission is free while ride and game coupons will be sold at the event.

Then July 4 brings the Independence Day Celebration with a familiar look featuring a car show, corn hole tournament, food, music and vendors. The day will be capped off with the community favorite, a fireworks display.

The Corn hole tournament is for ages 21 and up. The entry fee for the Corn Hole Tournament is $20 for each two-person team, with a double-elimination format. Register in person at the park on July 4.

July 4 Schedule

9:30 a.m. - Corn hole registration begins

10 a.m. - Corn hole tourney begins

10 a.m. to 1 p.m. - Car show, food trucks, vendors and music

1-10 p.m. - Carnival food, music, rides and games all day
