

Essential Workers

Kevin Stubbs

Kevin Stubbs is a truck driver and a hometown hero. He works hard to make sure families have what they need. Please remember to thank a truck driver.

Brittany Cooper

Brittany Cooper is a respiratory therapist and has worked at multiple hospitals across the metro. She has done COVID contracts across the country for hospitals that are truly suffering. That has included working 5-6 days a week, 12+ hour shifts. Brittany is an Oklahoma native and moved to Midwest City six years ago with her husband Ryan.

Judy Everette

Mrs. Everette is a hometown hero. She is the Family and Consumer Science teacher at Carl Albert Middle School. This amazing teacher is kind, sweet and cares for her students.
Picture taken before Covid-19. Mrs. Everette with Chloe Stubbs.*

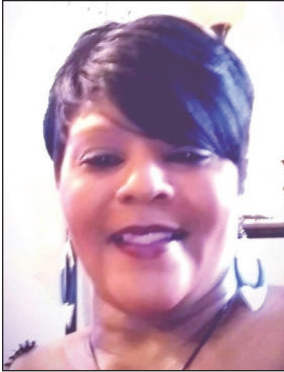

Lara Davis

Lara Davis has worked as a school nurse at Mid-Del Schools since 2013. She serves at Carl Albert Middle School and Soldier Creek Elementary.

Mary Garrett

Mary Garrett is employed at WinCo Foods in Midwest City. She has been with the company for over three years. Mary greets the shoppers with a warm and approachable demeanor while providing great customer service. She encourages others to better themselves and demonstrates kindness to those in her community. Mary is a supportive friend and neighbor and has compassion for people in need. She has worked diligently through the pandemic and stays committed to her job, family, and friends.

The community of Midwest City is grateful for her essential service work to ensure that consumers get the things they need to keep their loved ones healthy and safe. Thank you Mary! You are a Hometown Hero!

Jessica Jones

Jessica Jones worked a school nurse with Mid-Del Schools from 2013-2017. After a short break she came back to the district has worked since. She serves students at Pleasant Hill Elementary, Country Estates Elementary and Midwest City Middle School.

THE WOLFE LIVING CENTER

Thank You

Health Professionals

Skilled Rehab & Long Term Care • Independent Living Suites

18501 NE 63rd St • Harrah, OK 73045 • 405-454-1400

www.wolfelivingcenter.com