MOBILE

The following major incidents were reported by the Mobile Police Department:

Shooting into an occupied vehicle: On Nov. 13, at approximately 7:20 p.m., police responded to the area of Senator Street at Crenshaw Street for a shooting into a vehicle. During an argument, the suspect fired multiple shots toward the victim's vehicle. Two children were in the back seat. No one was injured.

Assault 2nd degree: On Nov. 14, at approximately 2 p.m., police responded in the 2000 block of Eagle Drive for a victim shot. During a verbal altercation, one subject produced a handgun. When he looked away, the second subject retrieved his handgun and shot him multiple times. He was transported to the hospital with life-threatening injuries.

Assault 2nd degree, shooting into an occupied dwelling, reckless endangerment: On Nov. 14, at approximately 3 p.m., police responded in the 1200 block of Arlington Street for a shooting. The victim stated she was sitting outside when an unknown person drove pass the apartment and started shooting several shots toward her direction. She was struck by a bullet and one bullet entered the apartment while her daughter was inside. The victim was transported to the hospital for non-life threatening injuries.

Traffic accident: On Nov. 14, at approximately 3:02 p.m., the victim stated that his vehicle had been struck by another vehicle at I-65 and Highway 90. The victim said the other involved vehicle left the scene and he followed it and called police. The driver pulled into the parking lot of Kate Shepard Elementary School. When the officer parked behind that driver's vehicle, she backed into the patrol car causing minor damage. After officers performed a field sobriety test, the driver, 31-year-old Anna Labruzzo, was arrested and charged with DUI.

Assault 3rd degree: On Nov. 14, at approximately 8:35 p.m., police responded to Serda Brewing, 600 Government Street, for a report of intoxicated individuals arguing and fighting. The subject was found unconscious in front of the location. According to the victim, the subject took a punch at him and missed. The victim said fearing for his safety he punched the subject who fell hitting his head on the sidewalk. The suspect was transported to the hospital where he is listed in critical condition.

Shooting into an occupied dwelling, shooting into an unoccupied vehicle: On Nov. 14, at approximately 8:50 p.m., police responded in the 1600 block of Sumner Drive for a shooting. The victim stated that she was inside her apartment with friends when they heard multiple gunshots coming from outside the back entrance to the apartment. A round entered the residence. A vehicle was also struck. No one was injured.

Shooting into an occupied dwelling: On Nov. 14, at approximately 11:15 p.m., police responded to the Holiday Inn Express, 109 Long Street, for shots fired in the back parking area. Multiple rounds struck the hotel building. No one was injured.

Serious traffic collision: On Nov. 15, at approximately 12:12 a.m., police responded to a traffic accident at westbound I-10 at Highway 90. The crash occurred when the driver entered the interstate and lost control of the vehicle. The driver crossed all westbound lanes and struck the center divider. This caused the driver to be partially ejected and his head struck the retaining wall resulting in life-threatening injuries. A front seat passenger received non-life threatening injuries.

Disorderly conduct: On Nov. 15, at approximately 4:19 p.m., police responded to a naked male subject on top of a Lamar billboard at the intersection of Airport Blvd. and Park Avenue. The subject was shouting causing drivers to slow down. After persistent communication, officers convinced the subject to climb down. He then complained about back pain. The subject was transported to the hospital for evaluation and then transported to Metro Jail. Joshua Byrge, 23, was arrested.

Domestic violence 2nd degree, assault 2nd degree: On Nov. 15, at approximately 8:30 p.m. in the 2100 block of Clinton Street, the stepson stated he had gotten into a verbal altercation with his stepfather. As he was attempting to leave the residence, the stepfather opened fire on him and he shot back. The stepson was transported to the hospital by private vehicle for a non-life threatening gunshot wound. According to the stepfather, the stepson threatened him and when they went outside to talk, the stepson opened fire on him. The stepfather was shot multiple times and was transported to the hospital for non-life threatening injuries. No arrest has been made pending further investigation.

Attempt to elude, failure to obey, warrants: On Nov. 16, at approximately 3:57 a.m., police initiated a traffic stop on a vehicle at Springhill Avenue and East I-65 Service Road. The driver refused to stop and continued southbound on I-65 to eastbound Government Street. The driver then bailed out of the vehicle in the middle of McVay Drive. Officers pursued the driver on foot until he was apprehended. James Hicks, 30, was arrested.

Fraudulent use of credit/debit card: On Nov. 16, at approximately 4:30 p.m., the suspect
