Sennacherib of Assyria Threatens Jerusalem

II Kings 18 and 19; II Chronicles 32

Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. Hezekiah appointed military officers and encouraged them to be strong and courageous. He told them to not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there was a greater power with themselves than with him. Hezekiah proclaimed to his men that only the arm of flesh was with the king of Assyria but with Judah was the LORD their God to help them and to fight their battles. And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah said. When Sennacherib was laying siege to Lachish, he sent his officers to Jerusalem with a message for Hezekiah and the people of Judah challenging them to ignore what Hezekiah said and remember what his fathers had done to other lands that they had invaded. He urged them to give up the fight and surrender.

King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah cried out in prayer to heaven about this and the LORD sent an angel, who annihilated all the fighting men and the leaders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. When he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons cut him down with the sword. Many of the people of Judah brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.
