Jehoiachin Released from Prison

II Kings 25

After the Israelites were in Babylonian captivity thirty-seven years Evil-Merodach became king of Babylon and released Jehoiachin from prison. He gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table. Every day the king gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.
