

STAMP COLLECTING

WITH DAN MADDALINO

It's that time of year where we, here in South Florida, turn our activity attention to the beach and boating. So, lets plan our outing with the help of some USA postage stamps.

Growing up in the Miami area our family would make a day at the beach a real treat. Once it was announced that we were to gather our beach gear, visions of the sand and surf played in my mind. A great example of beach activity is Scott numbers 1448-1451, celebrating summer at the Cape Hatteras National Seashore. Shown is the waves and surf fishing, sea birds and a lighthouse.

We must dress properly, so everyone will need to pick their favorite beach themed shirt. Scott numbers 4592-4596 shows a great selection of Aloha Shirts. Colorful and playful for this day trip. Don't forget to bring some shade! Look to Scott number 2443 for our Beach Umbrella.

Upon arrival we'll all dash for the surf, dive under and look for the beautiful fish as we have seen in Wonders of the Sea Scott numbers 2863-2866. No, we'll not give the Sharks, Scott numbers 5223-5227, a passing thought. Just the sun, sand and surf.

After taking a mid-day break for some ice cream and other Soda Fountain

Favorites, Scott numbers 5093-5097, we'll be refreshed to search for some Seashells Scott numbers 2117-2121 and 5163-5166.

The long walks on the afternoon sand will bring us to the close of our day at the beach. But not before one last treat.

Everyone will want some Frozen Treats, Scott numbers 5285-5294, before we head home.

Use your stamps to create a great summer fun day. Cresthavenstamp.club

"The City That Talks" A Municipal Story Time

Please listen and watch as Vice Mayors Kim Glas-Castro of the Town of Lake Park and Patty Waller of the Village of Palm Springs read "The City That Talks."

Published by the Florida League of Cities, this is a picture book geared toward children ages 4-8. In the book, A teacher asks, "What is the best thing about our city?" A student goes looking for the answer. Different parts of her city love to talk and tell her why they are the best. As the book progresses, she explores and finds out that cities have a voice.

The story is also available in SPANISH and CREOLE from the Florida League of Cities' website.

The digital version of this book and other civics education tools are available as part of the Florida League of Cities "Readers-2Leaders" initiative.
