The Juror for the 24th Annual Members Show was Matt Stock, an award-winning, Miami-based photographer whose area of expertise is creating hyper-realistic night-time nature photographs with a technique referred to as painting with light. He was one of 30 artists chosen nationally to represent the National Park Service for their Centennial Anniversary in 2016 and was asked to talk about his unique photographic technique at TEDx Coconut Grove. His work can be found in private collections across the U.S.

A Best of Show cash prize of $950 will be awarded, as will two Merit Awards for free tuition for a FOTOfusion Passport or a Master Workshop. This year's winners will be announced at the exhibition's virtual reception on September 16 at 6 p.m.

Also on display at the Photo Centre is The FOTOCamp Exhibition, showcasing works by the talented young people, ages 10 to 17, who participated in this summer's virtual FOTOCamp for Kids.

Anyone interested in attending the virtual reception on September 16 should reserve their space ASAP on the Photo Centre's official website (www.workshop.org), and a direct link to the online event will be emailed in advance.
