Mrs. Robinson's A-“Maze-”ing 7th Graders

Alexis Stephens, Kushi Patel, and Jordynne MacDougall

Russell County Middle School News
Students in Mrs. Marquita Robinson's seventh grade math classes recently read Flowers for Algernon and discussed the math applications from the novel, including scale drawings and mazes. Flowers for Algernon, first published in 1959, details the story of a mentally disabled man, Charlie, whose experimental quest for intelligence mirrors that of Algernon, an extraordinary lab mouse. According to Goodreads, "In diary entries, Charlie tells how a brain operation increases his IQ and changes his life. As the experimental procedure takes effect, Charlie's intelligence expands until it surpasses that of the doctors who engineered his metamorphosis. The experiment seems to be a scientific breakthrough
