

Light up Russell County GREEN

Cheyenne Popplewell
The Times Journal

Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear is asking everyone in Kentucky to light their homes, neighborhoods and businesses in green to remember those who lost their lives to COVID-19. Take a look around homes and business of Russell County to see how they are honoring those who have passed!

Lighting up the Russell County Laker field on April 8 for 20 minutes and 20 seconds for the 2020 Seniors

Russell County EMS supporting the families that have lost loved ones from the Coronavirus

Russell County Health Department.

Russell Springs City Hall lit Main Street up Green. Governor Beshear showed this image during one of his meetings on TV

The Bennett family honoring lives lost.

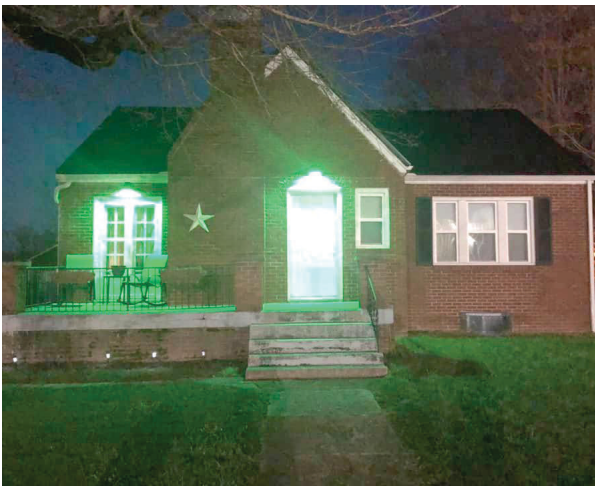

The Frazier House in Jamestown light their house up Green for COVID19 and also mask up their shrubs!

The Burton house shines bright with Green Lights.

The Tubb Family honoring lost lives.

The Ryan family lights up their house bright.

The Smith Family is honoring the ones we have lost. #TEAMKENTUCKY.

The Skaggs Family is happy to shine the bright green light for lives lost.

The Matney Family shines their bright green light.

The Reeder household is about Kentuck during times like this

#TEAMKENTUCKY