HOMEMADE

great-grandparents had can picture us sitting playing Rook...but NOT lived was still standing. soaked up the scene, poaked up the scene, pondering life there during the 1920 's. I pictured their garden that had grown the potatoes, tomatoes, and onions for the stew.

Besides the ones at Homemade Hollow, I don't know all my ancestors or which country they came from. There are a few things I do know:

1. God had His eye on me even before I was 139:13 and 15 reminds us all: "For You created my inmost being; You knit me together in my mother's womb...Your eyes saw my unformed body..."
2. In 1971, I was adopted. Into the family of God. He welcomed me with open arms though I have deserved it at times. He longs to spend time with me, and you, too. He wants to bless us and has a plan for our lives-a good one.
One day, I will get to see my mother again in heaven, along with some grandparents and

Choose Love

Pandemic fear, we your actions show your I love my family, beliefs and values. friends, coworkers and everyone else and am open to new ideas. This season has given me pause for many reasons- especially how divided we appear. People speak with such authority on issues as if their beliefs should be everyone's beliefs.
It is time to examine It is time to examine

We Will Get Through

 This Together!Remember I john 4:18 21: ‘There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, becaus fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made per fect in love. We love because he first love love God " yet hates hi brether he is liar For nyone who does love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has no seen. And he has give us this command: Who ever loves God mus also love his brother.'

This week, be mind ful and treat everyon well. Be Grateful in al things. Love God an People. Amen.
