

Season Co-Conference Champs

Photos & Info by Angelina Alcott

Green County eighth grade end their middle school season career as co-conference champions and win their second straight conference tournament championship title. The team defeated Metcalfe County Middle School 57-43. They shared conference honors with the Hornets who also ended regular season with a 13-1 record.

Houston Hodges looks for an open teammate Monday evening during the eighth grade championship game in Metcalfe County.

The seventh grade Green County Middle School basketball team played against Russell County Monday evening in the CKMSAC Tournament championship game in Metcalfe County. The team finished runner-up after a 23-48 loss to the Lakers. The team worked hard to improve all season and finished as tournament runner-up and CKMSAC season co-champions.

Gritty player Austin Squires pestered a number of opponents while on defense to force turnovers. He capitalized after tipping a ball out of a Lakers hand and drove in for the lay-up.

Wrestlers at Central Hardin

Photos by Dale Curry

Devon Vandeboss, wrestling in the 220 pound class, picked up fourth place in an individual tournament at Central Hardin High School on Monday.

Jake Stone wrestles in the 182 pound class. He finished second in his weight class Monday at Central Hardin.

Maddux Martin is a wrestler in the 113 pound class. According to GCHS wrestling coach, Alex Taylor, "Martin has improved tremendously since starting this season in a competitive weight class."

Dragon Tumblers perform

Photo by Dale Curry

Young dancers, members of the Dragon Tumblers, provided entertainment at Monday night's high school games.

Esport Practice

Photo by Angelina Alcott

Green County High School Esport team members practice league Monday afternoon. League team members practice on Monday and Wednesday afternoons. Smite team practices on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. They will compete against teams from across the state of Kentucky.

Loy wins 1-15 basketball contest

Robert Loy is the winner of last week's basketball contest.

He missed only 5 of the games in the contest.

He wins two Green River Live

tickets to the Heart of Kentucky

Band, a buffet from Creekside

Restaurant, a Phillips Lane gift certificate and a dinner from Lee's

Famous Recipe.