

SOCIAL DISTANCING

The Holmes County Herald asked its readers to submit photos of their activities and adventures during this time of social distancing and shelter-in-place efforts. See submissions below!
Email photos of your adventures to the Herald at: hcherald@gmail.com
