Claffin University with its "Day of Reflection" a Virtual Memorial in Honor of George Floyd

Claffin University will host a "Day of Reflection," a virtual memorial in honor of George Floyd. The Day of Reflection will be held to remember and honor the life of George Floyd, a Black man who was killed by a police officer in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The Day of Reflection will include a keynote speech by Dr. Henry N. Tisdale, President Emeritus at Claffin University, and a panel discussion featuring experts in the fields of criminal justice, social justice, and race relations.

The Day of Reflection will also include a candlelight vigil to honor George Floyd and all those who have been killed by police brutality. The candlelight vigil will be held at Claffin University’s main campus.

The Day of Reflection is open to all students, faculty, staff, and alumni of Claffin University. It is also open to members of the Claffin community who are not affiliated with the university.

The Day of Reflection is sponsored by Claffin University’s Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
