CHS student crowned Miss Capital City's Outstanding Teen

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton High School student Sarah Beth Stambaugh was recently crowned Miss Capital City's Outstanding Teen. Stambaugh is a junior at CHS, an honor student, Attache' singer/dancer, and a student council officer. She will represent her title at the Miss Mississippi Outstanding Teen (MMSOT) pageant in Vicksburg in April. MMSOT is a division of the Miss America Organization. Stambaugh has a social impact platform, "We're All Friends Here: Normalizing Special Education in the School Environment," which is her plan to help erase the stigma of the special needs classroom.
