

Arrows recognized at football awards banquet

By Danny C. Davis

The 2019 Clinton Arrows football team was recently recognized at the annual awards banquet hosted by the Arrow Touchdown Club.

Former Arrow and parent Tywon Alexander gave the invocation.

Charles Williams, a former Arrows football player who played for CHS 1989-2020, was the banquet speaker. His three points to the Arrow players were: ability, what motivates you, and a good attitude to push yourself to be the best at everything you do in life.

The first recognition went to the Sumter Hill ninth grade Arrows, who won the Little Six Ninth Grade Championship for the third time in three years. Coaches Ethan Eubanks and Anthony Stanford presented each player with a Little Six Championship plaque.

"It was another great season for our ninth grade Arrows," said Coach Anthony Stanford. "We lost two games during the season, but the players had a lot of fight in them to come back and win the championship again."

Arrows head football coach Judd Boswell thanked the booster club for all their hard work, including announcers and parents and everyone who helps the team during the season.

"We had a small group of seniors this year, but they worked hard. Sometimes things did not fall our way last season," said Boswell. We are looking forward to 2020, and great days are ahead for CHS football. We are really starting to look
