

Clinton Band students attend clinic

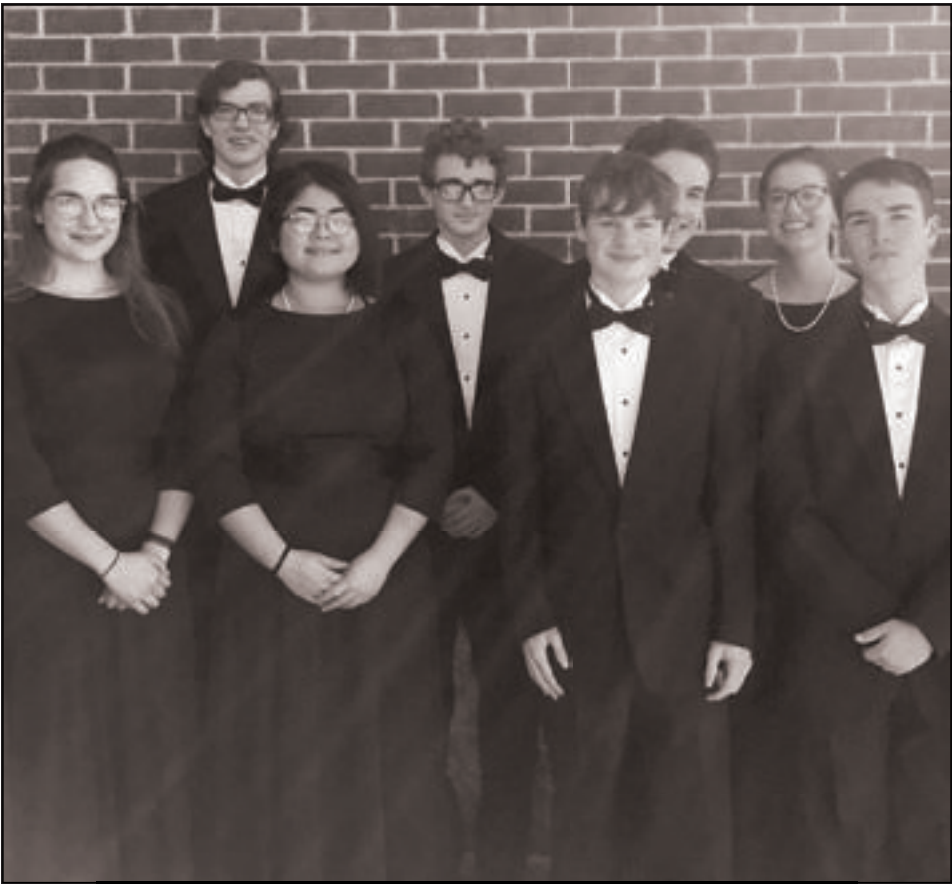

Special to The Clinton Courier

Twelve students from Clinton Bands attended the East Central Mississippi Bandmasters Association (ECMBDA) Honor Band Clinic at Ridgeland High School. Students were selected by their band directors, and then the ECMBDA board of directors chose the placements. Students were placed in rank order within two high school bands and one junior high school band. After approximately ten hours of rehearsal, each band performed in concert.

“Coffee with a Cop” planned for March 25

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clintonians are invited to breakfast with their law enforcement partners, the Clinton Police Department, on March 25. Clinton Police Chief Ford Hayman and officers from CPD will be at the Fountain View Cafe' at Southpointe Business Park that morning for “Coffee With a Cop.” From 7:30 until 8:30 a.m., Clinton residents can enjoy a free breakfast and time to meet with local police officers in a comfortable environment to discuss any topic -- from crime to neighborhood nuisance issues. Over a cup of coffee, community members and police officers can get to know each other better in efforts to build relationships. Hayman, upon his appointment as Police Chief, shared his plan to engage the community in a more direct manner and to build relationships between citizens and police officers; and Hayman says “Coffee with a Cop” has become a vital tool to accomplish those goals. Businesses who are interested in hosting a “Coffee with a Cop” event are invited to contact Hayman at 601-924-5252.
