Students excel at Science Olympiad

Special to The Clinton Courier

NOMINATE YOUR FAVORITE RESTAURANT!

Have you ever eaten somewhere and wanted to let everyone know how awesome the restaurant is?

Now, you can! Here is your chance to nominate your favorite Clinton restaurant. Send us an email to office@theclintoncourier.net to nominate your favorite restaurant.

When you send in your nomination, we want to know why you love that particular restaurant and how they went above and beyond your expectations.

This is your chance to let the Clinton community know why they should visit a particular restaurant. Send us your nominations today and any time you have a great restaurant experience you would like others to know about.
