Many members of Clinton High School's class of 2020 celebrated the final lap of their senior year by picking up a free Class of 2020 yard sign at Clinton High School.

CHS PTO president Kristen Temple said the PTO wanted to do something that let the seniors know the community was very proud of them.

“They’ve done a lot of work to get where they are,” Temple said. “They’ve also missed out on so much because of the Coronavirus, so we wanted to do something special.”

Temple said the goal was to provide a sign for all 361 seniors at no cost to the students. “We had a huge amount of the community donate to this goal, from other PTOs at other campuses, the Clinton High School Alumni Association, the 50th Anniversary Committee, as well as local businesses and individuals.”

“We want to celebrate the 50th graduating class of Clinton High School as much as we can,” Temple added. “This is just one more small way we can show how proud we all are of them.”
