

Nominations for 2021 Leadership Clinton now being accepted

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Clinton Chamber of Commerce is now accepting nominations for the Leadership Clinton Class of 2021. Leadership Clinton is a comprehensive educational program designed to tap a diverse base of emerging leaders and develop them into informed and motivated community participants. In making this announcement, Committee Chairman George Broadstreet stated that "there is no more vital or important activity sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce than Leadership Clinton."

"While we certainly highlight the positives of our community, we do not gloss over the challenges that confront us," said Broadstreet. "The mission of Leadership Clinton is to identify committed individuals from a cross-section of the community. They must be willing to work together, want to be informed citizens, and have a strong desire to be equipped for service." Anyone may apply or nominate someone else for participation in Leadership Clinton. Businesses, civic groups, churches, and other organizations are encouraged to nominate and sponsor candidates. The 2021 Class of Leadership Clinton will consist of up to twenty participants, ages twenty-five and over, who either live, work or have some other relationship with Clinton that would warrant their participation in the intensive program.

Participants will commit to a two-day (Friday and Saturday) retreat in early January and one workday per month from February through June 2021. Tuition for Leadership Clinton will be $450. All applicants should also understand that participation will require commitment and time.

A confidential application will be sent to each nominee/applicant to obtain the information necessary for a decision by the Leadership Committee. The nomination deadline is Monday, August 17, 2020. For more information or to request a nomination form, contact the Chamber office at 601-924-5912.
