

City plans annual Christmas tree lighting

E.K. Dacus

The 2019 City Christmas tree

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton will kick off the holiday season on Thursday, December 3, with the lighting of the City Christmas tree at 5:45 p.m. in front of City Hall. The tree lighting will serve as the starting point for the annual Santa Claus Crawl, which is being hosted by Main Street Clinton that evening.

Attending the lighting of the official City Christmas tree has long been a holiday tradition for families each year. Organizers hope that integrating the lighting into the Santa Claus Crawl will bring even more holiday cheer to the Olde Towne District.

Clinton adults are encouraged to stick around Olde Towne Clinton for a one-of-a-kind holiday event, Main Street Clinton's 8th Annual Santa Claus Crawl, a fun holiday event showcasing some favorite Olde Towne businesses.

The adult event includes a scavenger hunt-style tour from business to business in Olde Towne, with cider, hors d'oeuvres, music and door prizes. After purchasing a ticket, participants will visit each participating business, sampling cider and shopping, while looking for the answer to the business's unique question. A correct answer enters guests in the drawing for a fun door prize from the business.

Tickets to the Santa Claus Crawl are available for purchase at the Main Street Clinton office at the Olde Towne Depot or online at www.mainstreetclintonms.org/santaclauscrawl. The Christmas tree lighting is free.
