Lorenzo Alderman
Lorenzo (Loren) Alderman passed away on Monday, March 16, at the Lynblom Senior Care Center in St. Paul, Minn.

He was born in Adams, Wis., on June 19, 1935, to Ray and Mavis Goodbear Alderman. Loren graduated from the Delavan School for the Deaf in Delavan, Wis. He was employed by American Motors in Racine and later moved to Minnesota. Loren is survived by his wife, Dorothy; son, Dale, Milwaukee; daughter, Molly

Hacker, Pulaski, Wis.; his grandchildren, Steve and Sarah Alderman both from Milwaukee. He is also survived by his brother, Alvin (Shorty) Alderman and his sister, Vickie Flitsch, Edgerton; nephews Les Brown, Rodney and Shannon Alderman; nieces, Anita and Tina Alderman, all from Edgerton, and Brandi Alderman, Adams, Wis., and Linda Casper, Burlington, Wis.

He was predeceased by his brother, Ronald Alderman, Des Plaines, Ill. Funeral arrangements are pending.

Darlene Vogelson
Darlene Kay Vogelson, 71, of Charles City, Iowa, died Monday, Nov. 4, 2019, at Floyd County Memorial Hospital. She left behind her husband of nearly 50 years, Douglas Vogelson, a son, Greg Vogelson and a daughter, Kara (Hugh) Vogelson along with her mother, Emily Berg, brother, Randy Berg and sister, Diane Gillam. Per her wishes she will be cremated with no services planned at this time.

Darlene was born on Feb. 10, 1948, in Whitehall, Wis., to Wayne and Emily (Ellifson) Berg as the third of four children. She often spoke of her childhood with great affection and graduated high school in Beloit, Wis., where she met her husband. They began dating after Doug returned from Vietnam (Marines) and were married June 26, 1971, in Janesville, Wis. They had two children, Greg and Kara, and settled in Charles City. Darlene attended Newville school from first to sixth grade. Darlene was devoted to her family and her husband was her first priority. She was also her kids' prime cheerleader, confidant and was never above being silly to get a smile. After retirement, she had time to make countless trips to Dixon, Ill., to visit her mom (and of course, make more friends). Her little brother was the best friend she could have had.

Darlene held various jobs including those at Brooks Restaurant, Duffy's, Sisson's Insurance and at the Floyd County Medical Center. More important to mention than where she worked were the relationships she made: co-workers, clients, patrons, etc., would soon become friends.

Darlene was a social golfer, avid reader and member of a special book club, and a fun shopping partner. If you visited her home, she continually tried to feed you and if you were smart, you accepted as she was an exceptional baker and cook. She would often shop and buy a shirt or flat of blueberries that she just 'could not use' and would give it away. Darlene's generous spirit never waned and even as death neared, she was more concerned about others in the hospital than herself. She smiled. She showed love.

Darlene was preceded in death by her father, Wayne Berg, and brother, Gary Berg. If you would like to honor Darlene, please do something kind for someone else, especially someone in need.

Fullerton-Hage Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 401 Blunt, Charles City, Iowa, assisted the family.

He was born on Dec. 6, 1939, in Edgerton, the son of Richard and Frances (Schofield) Bartz. He grew up in the Edgerton/Janesville area and graduated from Janesville High School. He married Shirley M. Schaffer. Two children, Randy and Rhonda, resulted from that marriage. Allan later married Kathryn (Smedegard) Tyrer on June 28, 1986.

Allan served with the Army National Guard. He was employed in retail sales his entire working career and worked in Janesville at R. M. Bostwick's, Muriel's Men's Wear, Anderson's Clothing and Saxer's Sporting Goods. Prior to retiring, he was employed as manager of Rogan's Shoes in Janesville and Beloit.

Allan Bartz is survived by his wife, Kathryn Bartz; seven children, Randy Bartz, Rhonda Bartz, Steven (Pat) Tyrer, Deb (Ron) Shaw, Mike (Wendy) Tyrer, David Tyrer and Shelly (Tim) Malterer; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and his sister, Marilyn Bartz. His parents preceded him in death.

Due to the state restrictions on public gatherings, private graveside services with military rites will be held at Oak Hill Cemetery, Janesville. A celebration of Allan's life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Heart Association. Henke-Claron Funeral Home, Janesville is assisting the family.

Austin Vaught
Austin G. Vaught, age 64, of Janesville, formerly of Edgerton, died on Saint Patrick's Day, Tuesday, March 17, 2020, at Mercy Hospital & Trauma Center. He was born in Edgerton on the autumnal equinox, Sept. 23, 1955, the son of the late Austin and June (Green) Vaught, and was a 1973 graduate of Edgerton High School. Austin married Cynthia Duranti on Christmas Eve 1978 at the Seventh Day Baptist Church in Albion. Although they later divorced, they continued to remain friends. He was a machinist for Regal Beloit for many years. For a short time, he worked for his grandpa Clinton Green's sheet metal business, and designed an innovative product to place in his Mustang—a container that held his 8-track player. Austin loved cars and racing, music and radio, photography and his-

Stoughton Health works with local leaders on COVID-19 plan

Submitted by Susan Corcoran
Stoughton Health is working with the Stoughton Area School District and the City of Stoughton to create a cohesive, consistent COVID-19 plan for the community. The leaders from the three entities are meeting frequently to ensure the community is taking a uniform approach to prevention and safety. Stoughton Health is also working with local Emergency Management Services (EMS), skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, police departments, clinics, local chambers of commerce and media on the same measures. "A coordinated effort is essential to preventing the spread of COVID-19. As we expected, our community leaders are eager to work together and put the well-being of our community first," shared Dan DeGroot, Stoughton Health

President & CEO. "Everything that should be done in preparation for this is being done, by all of us, in coordination with one another." For up to date information on COVID-19, Stoughton Health recommends going to cdc.gov or visit Stoughton-health.com.

Community spread of COVID-19 in Rock County identified

From the Rock County Health Department
The Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) announced that community spread of COVID-19 has occurred in Wisconsin. This means that there are people who have tested positive who have no exposures to a known case nor did they travel to a location where there is known community spread. Status in your community updated numbers of positive cases per county and locations where community spread is being seen are updated on the DHS Outbreaks website daily at 2 p.m. Social distancing is a strategy to limit the spread of COVID-19, the disease caused by the novel (new) coronavirus called SARS-CoV-2. This is a conscious effort to reduce contact between people to slow the spread of the virus. Social distancing will help keep you, your family, and our community from increased risk of exposure. "Even if you are symptom free and not part of an at-risk group, you still need to change your lifestyle starting today," said Noel Sandoval, Health Officer for the Rock County Public Health Department. "The number of confirmed cases in Wisconsin reminds all of us about the importance of social distancing and maintaining good hygiene to prevent the spread of disease." According to DHS, avoid public places. If you cannot avoid public spaces, stay six feet away from other people. Stay home as much as possible. And think about how you can decrease close contacts and crowded environments while COVID-19 is spreading through our communities. The Rock County Public Health Department is keeping track of this outbreak. We are working with our local, state, and federal partners to deal quickly and effectively in the event people have symptoms of COVID-19 or have been around people who have been infected with the new coronavirus. The health department wants everyone to know that while the risk of getting the illness remains low, people should follow simple steps to avoid getting sick, including:

•Frequent and thorough handwashing with soap and water.
•Cover coughs and sneezes.
•Avoid touching your face.
•Stay home when sick.
