

Dresden High School: Academic Top Ten

1. Natalie Weidenbach is the daughter of Troy and Ameigh Weidenbach of Martin, Tennessee. Natalie will graduate with honors, distinction, and as a Tennessee Scholar. During her two years at Dresden High School, Natalie has been an active member of Beta Club and FFA. Natalie served as Chapter President in FFA during her senior year. Through FFA, Natalie has been involved in many volunteer activities such as cleaning the Ned Ray McWherter Statue and reading to the Elementary School students. In addition to her school and community involvement, Natalie is an active member of Ruthville Missionary Baptist Church. After graduation, Natalie plans to attend The University of Tennessee at Martin and major in Animal Science.

2. Dryver Finch is the son of

Phil and Lesa Finch of Dresden, Tennessee. Dryver will be graduating with honors, distinction, as a Tennessee Scholar, and was selected into the Ned McWherter Scholars Program. While at Dresden High School, Dryver stayed involved in organizations both in school and in the Weakley County community. Dryver was the president of the Class of 2020, student council, and the Spanish club, the vice president of the Future Business Leaders of America, and a member of the Beta Club and the Health Occupation Students of America. During his sophomore year, Dryver served as the Chairman of Youth Leadership of Weakley County 2018 Class. Dryver has also spent time volunteering with a few different organizations. Since 2016, Dryver has worked with the Dresden Quarterback Club pre-
