

Christmas in Our County Seat

the City of Dresden
Welcomes you to Christmas 2020
Sunday, Nov. 22, 1-5

The City of Dresden invites the community to take part in this year's festivities of the Christmas season. Shopping local is so important to our businesses, and they need your patronage. Shop LOCAL First!

Dresden Businesses, Organizations and Individuals have worked hard to bring a sense of normalcy to this holiday season.

Enjoy the many fun activities and events for the whole family.

Grab a City of Dresden Holiday Brochures and make a plan.

Be Courteous To Others By Social Distancing

Wear A Mask • Sanitize Your Hands Frequently

Don't miss any of the activities:

November 22 City of Dresden Open House 1-5

- Pictures with Santa at Be the Village: Come visit and take your picture for $10.
- Santa Letter Writing: Dresden City Hall
- Sheriff Smith and Justice: Come near City Hall to sip hot chocolate while listening to one of our local heroes and book author, Eric Smith, as he reads about the adventures of Sheriff Smith and Justice. Officer Smith and Justice will be available for book purchases ($15) and pictures. Justice will be "Paw" signing books as well. This would make a wonderful gift and keepsake for anyone. Purchase a book for yourself and/or donate one to a local child. All proceeds will go toward Shop with Sheriff Smith and Justice.
- Fill the Ambulance and Bake Sale: Cash Express and Weakley County Ambulance Service will be selling baked goods and taking donations of toys and coats to be given to Santa's Helpers.
- The Purple Iris Bizarre: Variety of vendors and special treats available.
- City of Dresden: Swearing in of the newly elected aldermen 2 p.m.
- Santa's Helpers: Santa's Christmas Shop is open. Clancy the Bear will be there visiting and taking pictures. Help Clancy fill his stocking with $1 donations. Don't forget to register for the drawings.
