

Western Illinois University School of Ag invites prospective students to Open House March 20

The Western Illinois University School of Agriculture will host its spring open house for prospective students and their parents from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, March 20 at the University Livestock Center, 2265 Wigwam Hollow Rd.

School of Agriculture faculty and current students will be on hand at the open house to answer questions and to lead tours of the WIU-Macomb campus, the University Farm and WIU's agriculture facilities.

The event and lunch are free, and attendees will be entered into a drawing for a $200 scholarship. Students planning to enroll at WIU within the next two years will each get a $1,000 scholarship.

"Attending the School of Agriculture Open House is the best way for those interested in studying agriculture to learn about our program," said WIU Agriculture Instructor Janna Knupp.

"Having the opportunity to visit with faculty, students and alumni, as well as tour the University Farm, gives future students an inside perspective of the opportunities available at WIU," she added.

The lunch will be a Tex-Mex buffet, which will feature Leatherneck Country Meats.
