Mullin Elementary & High Schools

Small class sizes, 1:1 high-bandwidth technology, experienced teachers, and 6-man football at the Mullin High and Elementary Schools provide outstanding opportunities for students in Mills and surrounding counties, including the possibility of completing an associate degree and CNA program, at no cost to the student, concurrent with the completion of high school.

Pecan Ridge High School, San Saba Transfer Unit

The first of its kind, PRHS gives confined young women (ages 18-26) the second chance to earn a high school diploma through a partnership with Windham School District and Texas Department of Criminal Justice, providing the academic skills required to thrive in the economic, sociological, and cultural dimensions of society.

Sustainability Through Innovation

In addition to the traditional campuses in Mullin, Texas, Mullin ISD serves residential facilities in Brownwood, Levelland, Lubbock, and San Saba providing traditional school experiences and specialized programming for at-risk students.

Mullin Oaks, Brownwood, TX

The Oaks offers a traditional curriculum of core and elective classes, opportunities for credit recovery, and a G.E.D. program to confined young men through a partnership that enhances opportunities for a satisfying and productive life.

Parkview School, Levelland

The Parkview School, through a partnership with Children's Hope Residential Services, provide direct instruction, self-paced learning, and specialized educational therapies preparing students (K-12) to function and thrive in society.
