

The 2021 Hunting Season Is Here!

By Steven Bridges

When deer season ended last year, I thought the 2021 season was so very far away. It seemed the new season would never get here. Now that the season is upon us, I can't help but get excited. I am truly hoping that all the COVID related issues stay away and allow all our hunters to travel here for lots of hunts this fall.

And speaking of COVID, you might notice more stories and photos from my family than normal in this year's edition. COVID made it difficult for me to take anyone but my family hunting last season.

Gear Up Locally

Now is the time to gear up and get going on preparations for the hunting season. Goldthwaite offers many places to get feed, seed, deer stands, guns, camo and ammo. These businesses are featured throughout the pages of the 2021 Edition of the Mills County Hunting Guide.

Hunters are encouraged to shop locally for their hunting supplies. You'll get great prices, selection and personalized service that only our small town merchants can offer.

Trophy Room

I encourage everyone to mail, e-mail or bring pictures and stories of locally harvested deer and other wild game by for The Eagle to publish in the newspaper's Trophy Room that is featured every week of the season.

The best of these photos and stories are chosen to be included in next year's Mills County Hunting Guide.

Our Most Special Special Section

We are honored to be recognized by our peers in the industry. However, we are just proud of the exposure we are able to provide to our local advertisers. And even more proud of the thousands who read the Hunting Guide.

It is music to my ears when a camo-clad hunter sticks his head in the door of The Eagle and asks me, "What day is IT coming out this year?" No award can replace that feeling.

In my humble opinion, the 2021 Edition of our Hunting Guide is the best Hunting Guide to date. We upgraded the cover to a heavy, slick cover and upgraded the inside pages to a heavier weight also. Upgrading the cover and pages will add years to the shelf life of the magazine. That way, hunters can read the Hunting Guide over and over at hunting camp or at home.

What is Inside this Edition

You will find the pages of this publication filled with trophy game animals harvested in Mills County by local hunters. You will also find wonderful stories written by local writers of hunts that took place right here in Mills County.

Of course, local advertisements are also featured throughout the Hunting Guide. Please shop with our local advertisers.

I'd like to thank all those who advertised and submitted photos and articles for this year's Guide.

Mills County is THE PLACE FOR HUNTING!

Dove, deer, hogs, turkey and small game are all in abundance in Mills County. Hunters from across Texas and farther descend on Mills County each fall to chase various game. Hunting is vital to our local economy, as well as our outdoor way of life in Mills County.

Special Thanks!

A special thanks goes out to our loyal advertisers who make this edition possible. Without our local advertisers, none of this would be possible.
