

GCHS grads kick off final few days of high school with senior breakfast

Event filled with fun times, fellowship and a few ‘unique’ awards

— From Staff Reports —
The final weeks of school for high school graduates are some of the most memorable they spend as a class together. Greene County High School graduates have several formal and informal gatherings during this time. One of those, the senior breakfast, is held just a few days before graduation and before the seniors do a walk through of the official ceremonies that will follow.

This year’s breakfast was held Wednesday, May 26, and featured a full breakfast, and of course lots of laughs, as graduates reminisced and enjoyed seeing some win ‘awards’ presented to them by teachers and advisors at the school.
